SPEAKER: Senator Syas do you yield?

SENATOR SYAS: Yeah, sure.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Senator Syas, Mr. Robert Walker appeared from Kearney. Was he representing anybody?

SENATOR SYAS: Yes, as I recall he's on the State College Board, I believe.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: OK, has the State College Board taken a position on this?

SENATOR SYAS: Senator Stull says Bonding Committee also. I think, as I recall, he was on the State Board of Colleges.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: OK, has the State Board of Colleges taken a position on this bill?

SENATOR SYAS: Well evidently when he came in there they had, yes. I don't see how you'd interpret it otherwise. I don't recall . . .

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I don't want this interpretation, I want to know what the testimony was.

SENATOR SYAS: Well I'd have to have Jackie look up the testimony, which she can do if you want to give me a little time to do it. She's already looked . . . she's the one that puts down the tape . . . I mean what comes off the tape.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: OK, it was your understanding that the State College Board . . .

SENATOR SYAS: That was my impression from the testimony, yes. If you want to specifically see what he says, I can have Jackie look it. You want that?

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Yes, I would. I'd like it on the record of this floor debate as to who he represented.

SENATOR SYAS: Alright.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Alright, Bill Beavers represented Childs, Hider. Now does Childs, Hider . . . do they hold most of these bonds . . . have they written most of these bonds? Are they the bond house for the state . . .

SENATOR SYAS: I don't know how many they've written. If you recall you're getting letters from them all the time on things of this nature. Fact is, at least I do. I've been getting letters from them all the time.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Alright.

SENATOR SYAS: Well 105 was one of them, yes. They testified, yes.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: OK. Mr. Bud Johnson, Warren Johnson?
